EURO SKY TRAVEL CLUB CELEBRATES JOINING HRG WORLDWIDE NETWORK

Around 250 guests, including corporate clients, business leaders and the Prime Minister and President of Kosovo, are joining Euro Sky Travel Club for a celebratory event this evening (Friday, 3 October) at Sheshi 21 in Pristina to mark the company's partnership with international corporate travel services company Hogg Robinson Group HRG.

Betim Cina, Managing Director of Euro Sky Travel Club, commented: "We are committed to developing our relationship with HRG to offer real added value benefits to clients. I am therefore delighted and honoured that so many important guests and valued clients, including our Prime Minister and President, are able to join us as we formally celebrate Euro Sky Travel Club joining the HRG worldwide network."

Adrian Woodward, General Manager of the HRG partner network, commented: "The Kosovan economy has shown significant progress in recent years and, following the country's declared independence earlier this year, continues to attract multinational interest. It is well connected to the regional centres of South-East Europe via road, rail and air with global access through Pristina Airport. Euro Sky Travel Club, as local experts backed by the global capabilities of our organisation, is well positioned to help clients as they consolidate their business travel activities on a regional basis and I look forward to a continued successful relationship."

In addition to Euro Sky Travel Club, Hogg Robinson Group has a presence in some 22 countries across Central & South Eastern Europe with its global network extending to over 100 countries.
